Introduction to Pitch Notation

As well as rhythm, music has pitch - sounds that are high, middle or low. Pitch is shown on sets of five lines, called a 'staff' or 'stave'. We'll refer to it both ways throughout this book. Here are some semibreves on a staff:

Notice how some of the notes are on the lines. (That is, the line goes through the middle of the note) and some are in the spaces between the lines.

Piano music is actually written on two staves bracketed together, called a 'grand staff':

Draw some semibreves on the grand staff above. Put some in the treble, some in the bass, some on the lines and some in the spaces! (Or the other way round!)

DID YOU KNOW... The higher the position of a note on the staff, the higher it will sound!
